AUGLAIZE GARDENS

Van Wert, Ohio

PEONIES

Group One — fine peonies for all round usefulness. In this group we have collected the finest Auglaize Garden lifetime peonies selling at popular prices. These cover a wide range of colors, types, and include early, midseason, and late blooming varieties. We suggest that you make most of your selections from this group as all of them are thoroughly satisfactory, of outstanding beauty and suitable either for cut or exhibition flowers, or for general landscape use. We can recommend them with entire confidence.

The plants are listed as follows: First, the official rating of the American Peony Society, second, the name, third, the originator, fourth, the color and season of bloom, (E), early, (M), midseason, (L), late. All peonies in this group are either double or semi-double except those which are marked Jap or Single. Those varieties marked with a ★ are varieties which we especially like and which we recommend as particularly outstanding in the group.

Price $2.50 Per Division

- 9.1 Gloriana, (Neeley)—Lilac pink.
- ★8.9 Helen, (Thurlow)—Single. Petals round and broad, dark shell-pink in color, stamens golden yellow. Stems erect and tall. One of the first Chinese peonies to bloom and a very desirable variety.
- 8.7 Inspecteur Lavergne, (Doriat)—Crimson, E.
- ★9.3 Isani Gidui—A variety of great beauty and the best of the white Japs. A very large perfectly round flower with a single row of pure white outer petals, the staminodes incurved, narrow, of rich buff yellow. Medium tall plant. Good size. Mid-season.
- 9.0 John M. Good, (Welsh)—Ivory white, M.
- ★9.9 Le Cygne, (Lemoine)—The highest rated peony in the world. The flower is a perfect rose type, large and globular, very symmetrical in form and of a creamy white color. Plant of good growth, medium tall and heavy dark green foliage. Early mid-season. A variety that should be in every planting, although some years if weather conditions do not suit, it fails to produce flowers of the best quality, but other years its flowers are so fine that it more than compensates for occasional disappointments.
- ★8.8 Mme. Emile Debatene, (Dessert-Doriat)—Very large fine rose shaped flower. China pink with silver reflex. A striking flower with good stem. Mid-season.
- ★8.9 Nancy Dolman, (Vories)—A handsome late blooming variety. Flowers conical in form with pale rose pink, fluffy petals paler towards the center. A tall robust plant, very stiff stems and good foliage.
- ★9.2 Philippe Rivoire, (Riviere)—Probably the finest of the red peonies—the true variety is a medium sized flower very symmetrical in form, rose type of a bright, velvety crimson which holds its color without burning throughout the life of the flower. Medium tall plant, strong slender stems. Blooms in late mid-season. Rose fragrance.
- ★ Soshi, (Millet)—An exceptionally attractive flower with outer petals clear, deep red and petaloids rich golden yellow. Very tall robust plant carrying its freely produced flowers well above the foliage. A plant that immediately attracts attention. Mid-season.
- ★9.0 Verdun, (Dessert-Doriat)—One of the best deep red single peonies. Very large flower with bright crimson red petals. Medium height. Good stems, blooms mid-season. An outstanding variety.

Price $3.50 Per Division

- ★9.4 Alice Harding, (Lemoine)—A very beautiful flower with broad evenly rounded guard petals with a cupped center of long, irregular petals—outer petals flesh pink, center creamy white. Fairly tall plant, good foliage and stem. Mid-season. A peony that is outstanding in every way.
- Antwerpen, (Jap)—Carmine pink, a fine variety.
- ★8.8 Argentine, (Lemoine)—An exceptionally attractive white flower, blooming in late mid-season, petals very symmetrical. Good strong stems. An attractive plant.
- 8.7 Denise, (Lemoine)—Flesh white.
- ★8.8 Ella Christiansen, (Brand)—A fine medium pink flower opening cup shaped and later becoming flat with long narrow petals. Late mid-season, fine strong stems.
- ★8.7 Frank E. Good, (Good & Reese)—Pale flesh pink with a salmon cast in center, rose type. A vigorous growing plant, tall stems blooming late.
- 8.8 Grace Batson, (Sass)—Medium dark pink.

Price $3.50 Per Division

- 9.0 Hansina Brand, (Brand)—Flesh pink.
- 8.9 Last Rose, (Sass)—Pink, L.
- ★9.2 Matilda Lewis, (Saunders)—Almost as dark as Mons. Martin Cahuzac, but a better and larger flower. Better filled out and in every way a superior variety. Blooms in mid-season. Vigorous growing plant, dark green foliage. Medium tall stiff stems. One of the best of the red peonies.
- 8.8 Miss Eckhart, (van der Meer)—Rose.
- ★9.0 Mrs. A. M. Brand, (Brand)—A large clear white flower that always is much admired and worthy of high praise. Rather flat with broad guard petals of good substance. Medium tall, strong stems, and late.
- ★9.0 Mrs. Frank Beach, (Brand)—One of the finest ivory white peonies. A large flat flower. Very reliable bloomer on rather dwarf plants. Strong, stiff, erect stems. Mid-season. A choice variety when a dwarf plant is desired.
- ★8.9 Mrs. Romaine B. Ware, (Brand)—A fine, light, flesh-pink flower, slightly fragrant. Blooms in late mid-season on a fairly stiff and tall stem.
- ★9.1 Myrtle Gentry, (Brand)—A flower with perfectly rounded petals of fine substance, perfect in form and of great size. Color pink with tints of salmon and flesh. Pleasing tea rose fragrance. Plant of good habit, tall, stiff stems. Late mid-season.
- ★9.0 Odile, (Doriat)—Large compact flower, very soft flesh pink turning to pure white. Tall strong stems.
- 8.6 Pompilia, (Earnshaw)—Ivory white, free bloomer.
- ★8.8 Prairie Afire, (Brand)—An unusual Jap, quite different from most others. Guard petals soft rose, staminodes fiery red. A medium tall plant, good stems. Mid-season.
- ★8.5 Rev. H. Tragitt, (Brand)—A very large rose type white flower which somewhat resembles Le Cygne but blooms later. Profuse bloomer on dwarf plants, very strong stems.

Group Two — Outstanding new and rare varieties. Auglaize Gardens has always endeavored to offer the world's finest peonies and we are constantly adding new varieties to our list. These are listed in this group. Among them will be found many very scarce kinds which are not yet known to the general public but which when better known will be considered as some of our finest peonies. In this group also are a few older varieties of which stock is not sufficiently plentiful that they can be sold at popular prices. The same method of listing each variety is followed in this group as in Group one.

Group Three

In group three we have placed quite a number of the older varieties. There are many fine peonies among these, but they do not possess the quality of those in group one and may be used for "fill in" varieties or for quantity plantings for cut flowers. Included in this group are a number of varieties which have outstandingly beautiful flowers but which because of weak stems or somewhat unreliable performance are not suitable for general use.

A NOTE ON PEONY PRICES AND SIZE OF ROOTS

Peony prices are determined in all cases by the comparative scarcity of the variety. New introductions necessarily command a relatively high price until they are produced in sufficient quantities to make a lower price commercially possible. The wide range in price does not mean that one variety is necessarily much better than another, although this, of course, enters to some extent in the determination of prices, especially in group one. Scarcity as well as desirability is a large factor in determining the prices in group two.

The prices quoted are for 3 to 5 eye divisions cut from freshly dug healthy three year old plants. In a few simple words Auglaize roots are the best peony roots that can be produced at the lowest prices consistent with high quality. We can supply one year old plants or larger plants if desired at advanced prices over those quoted in this list. These will be furnished on application. Throughout this list the varieties marked ★ are those that we consider the most reliable.

We publish a separate price list covering Oriental Poppies, Hemerocallis, Bleeding Heart and accessories. If you fail to receive a copy of this list please write us and request it. Information regarding terms, warranty, shipping season, and so forth covering all Auglaize Garden plants are contained in the four page folder and apply to the peonies listed in this folder.
